Elated Over Enthusiastic West, French Received in East.

VISIT CRADLE OF LIBERTY

Believe Cause of France Sunk Deep in Hearts of Americans.

Gotham a Bloom of Color Flying Flags of Three Nations.

Philadelphia, May 9.—Bringing with it the middle west's "win the war" pledge to the allies, the French commission arrived here today to visit the Cradle of Liberty in Independence Square. After a few hours here, Marshal Joffre, former Premier Viviani, and others of the mission will hurry on to New York, where they are due to arrive this afternoon. On the eve of their big eastern reception here, the commissioners summed up with considerable satisfaction the results and impressions of their triumphant western tour. From Washington to Chicago, from Kansas City to St. Louis and to the tomb of Lincoln at Springfield, Ill., thence across Indiana and on eastward today, the commission's trip—begun with some trepidation as to the warmth of the reception it might get—has been a roar of cheers, a sea of flags, a demonstration of love and faith in the allied cause from beginning to end. Vice-Premier Viviani today declared the middle west might win the war, and he believes it will make the effort to do so.

"It took personal contact for us to realize the immensity of the middle west's resources," said Viviani. "The unlimited part that territory could play in the planting of larger crops might be the war. The spirit of our splendid reception everywhere convinces me that it will try."

Defiance to Germany. With the French War Commission, May 9.—The voice of the middle west, united as never before, has spoken to France's war mission. In terms unmistakable, a message of defiance to Germany and her allies. It was an unanimous testimonial from the great industrial, agricultural and financial millions of the vast Mississippi, Missouri and Ohio valley that their entire resources stand behind President Wilson.

CANADIANS HIT

southern and western portions of Bullecourt late last night but made no attempt to attack with infantry. Bullecourt is now in a rather strange condition with British and German posts scattered thru it. The hostilities are being absorbed, however, and a number of prisoners are being taken. German counter attacks are being delivered with greater forces all the time after intensive artillery fire from a great concentration of guns. These attacks are very costly but efforts are being made to continue the fighting will sway to and from certain positions in the long line.

Reckless in Life Expectancy. With massed reserves and every available gun at his command, Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria is striving to halt the ceaseless British assaults on the Droocourt-Queant line, the last bulwark protecting the richest prize of the Germans in northern France—the coal fields of Lens. The reckless expenditure of human life by the German commander has had, at least, a temporary reward in the recapture of Fresnoy at the northern end of the line. This little village and the wood which surrounds it formed a sharp salient driven by the Canadians to within two miles of Droocourt. Its capture marks the first time in the present offensive that a German counter attack has succeeded in wresting an important position from the British.

British Wedge Far In. Curiously enough the official statement from Berlin that announces the capture of Fresnoy indicates the British are much closer to the southern end of the Droocourt-Queant line than has been claimed by London. The German war effort is being fought between Fresnoy and Fontaine, the former village being a bare mile and a half from Fresnoy and less than a mile from Fontaine. The distance from Cagnicourt, the next German stronghold north of Fresnoy.

Everything indicates the present struggle on the British front is regarded on both sides as one of the most important actions of the war. But it may be many days before a decision is reached. The determination with which the Germans are fighting and the strenuous effort to recapture the line is regarded by them as of vital importance and it is rendered only in the last extremity.

Macedonia Drive Now On. From two other war theaters news comes that opens up many possibilities for the fighting on the Macedonian front, constantly developing in severity and extent, gives renewed color to the belief that General Sarraute's offensive operations in making a jump into the car and drive away. They were astonished when Hugh Larimer began calling them up and demanding facts.

Will Not Go to K. C. Man Held Here As Motor Car Thief Demands Requisition Papers. M. J. Martin, arrested here Tuesday for the Kansas City police who charge he is a member of a gang of motor car thieves who operated extensively in Kansas and Missouri, is making a desperate attempt to get out of jail. Ed McKeever, as his attorney, filed habeas corpus proceedings for his release today.

Martin was arrested at the Rex hotel. James Miller was arrested also at a place on the East side where he had been living for some time. Officers, in making the arrest, declared Miller's place has, for some time, been a "nest" for motor car thieves and safebreakers.

When Martin was told by officers here that he was to be taken to Kansas City he refused to waive requisition papers. This occasioned enough delay to enable the prisoner to get an attorney and institute habeas corpus proceedings. The habeas corpus papers claim that officers have no warrant on which to hold Martin. The police and sheriff's office said this morning that the warrant was in Kansas City.

Governor Urged to Intervene to Settle Katy Strike.

Governor Capper has been urged to intervene in an effort to settle the strike of Katy railroad telegraph operators. A committee representing the telegraphers' union called on the governor today to urge arbitration of the disputes.

Union operators issued a strike order against the Katy recently when the railroad refused to recognize the union. The men are now anxious to settle the matter by arbitration. There is no law in Kansas, however, providing for compulsory arbitration and Governor Capper told the committee he was unable to do so. It is probable that the union will take its trouble to the federal courts as the strike order affects operators in Kansas, Missouri and Texas.

AH, A MYSTERY!

Police Had Clue That Looked Like "Bloody Murder."

Peaceful Topeka Neighborhood All Stirred Over It.

For more than two hours today the whole machinery of law enforcement in Shawnee county and Topeka was working upon a mystery. The officers were following up clues left by a big gray automobile, probably the low, racy, wicked-looking kind, told about in magazine stories. They were looking for a man who had been carried from such a car, hands and feet tied, probably murdered and left in some out-of-the-way place in the southwest part of the city.

The sheriff's force and the police joined in working upon the mystery. Chief "Jim" Wilson took charge of the force of clue hunters and charged southwest, the police siren screaming bloody murder.

They had the information that somewhere in the neighborhood of Huntoon and Winters streets there had been, possibly a tragedy. A woman living in that vicinity telephoned down town to her husband about it, he telephoned to the officers, they telephoned to people near Huntoon and Winters. After all the telephoning was over it appeared there was something serious happening out in that peaceful neighborhood.

Bundle in the Case. The information that reached the sheriff's office was to the effect that a "big gray" automobile drove up to a vacant piece of ground and that two men carried a bundle from the rear of the car. The woman first thought it was a man all tressed up like a roast chicken. Once out of the car the men pounced upon him and seemed to be doing him considerable damage. They tore off his shoes and parts of his clothing. Then they jumped into the car and drove away. The woman was afraid to go and look but she thought the dead man was still in the car.

The officers who went out to the investigation learned no more than they had to start with. But Hugh Larimer, sheriff, got hold of a clue and by using the telephone for half an hour learned all the facts and exploded the mystery.

Was All a Frank. The "big gray automobile" was dwarfed to a small delivery wagon operated by the Odorless Cleaners and the German war effort is being fought between Fresnoy and Fontaine, the former village being a bare mile and a half from Fresnoy and less than a mile from Fontaine. The distance from Cagnicourt, the next German stronghold north of Fresnoy.

TODAY'S MARKET REPORTS

Chicago Grain Market.
WHEAT—May 9.—WHEAT—Sensational fresh advances in the wheat market today resulted from the government crop report showing the largest abandonment of winter wheat acreage ever known in the United States. Excited market to buy current prices up 14 cents, notwithstanding that values yesterday had already scored net gains of 10 cents. The new advance today was due to the fact that the crop shortage indicated by the official figures proved to be much more severe than had been expected. Trading, however, was not heavy, most of the transactions being in small lots. Opening high 22.17; low 22.15; close 22.17 to 14 higher with May at $1.07 to $1.11 and July at $2.40 to $2.42 were followed by slight further gains in some cases.
